

Low Income Energy Advisory Committee (LIEAC) Members

The Low Income Energy Advisory Committee (LIEAC) is a citizens' advisory committee appointed to make recommendations on Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) policies and programs. The committee consists of sixteen Wisconsin residents representing various interests related to low income energy issues. The committee meets four times annually to review policy and make recommendations to the Energy Assistance Bureau.

FirstName	LastName	Company	JobTitle
Lorie	Bednarek	Columbia Cty Commission on Aging
Deborah	Blanks	Social Development Commission	CEO
Timothy	Bruer	Energy Services Inc	Executive Director
Tim	Clarenbach	Hartford Community Development	Program Director
Linda	Djupstrom	Marinette County DHHS	Energy Program Supervisor
Marty	Evanson	Commerce Division of Housing	Director
Helen	Gee	Community Advocates Milwaukee
George	Gerharz	Milwaukee Low Income Coalition
Andres	Guzman	La Casa de Esperanza Inc	Program Director
Timothy	Huck	Racine/Kenosha CAA	Program Director
David	Jenkins	Wisconsin Federation of Cooperatives	Electric Division Manager
Rosemary	Jonas	Integrated Community Services
Bob	Jones	WisCAP Association	Housing and Energy Director
Alice	Linnabary	Petroleum Marketers Association of Wisconsin	Manager
Beverly	Loy	Job Center	Rural Representative
Mike	Mueller	WE Energies	Low Income Policy and Medical Condition Coordinator
Bill	Oemichen	WI Federation of Cooperatives	President and CEO
Jim	Phillippo	Wisconsin Public Service Co	Manager, Customer Service
Michael	Poma	Milwaukee Co DHS	Coordinator
Jackie	Reynolds	Public Service Commission
Maureen	Ryan	WI Coalition of Independant Living Centers	Executive Director
Judy	Wilcox	Commerce Division of Housing	Section Chief